WALLIATTO GUIDE FOR "THE ICE BREAKER"

TRAVEL BROADENS ONE'S MIND Kelley 12/13/00
TITLE EVALUATOR DATE
Moore

Note To The Evaluator: The purpose of this speech was for a new member to "break the ice" - to introduce himself/herself to the Club and begin speaking before an audience. The speech should have a clear beginning, body, and ending. The speaker has been advised to use notes if necessary and to forget body language. Point the speaker toward methods of improvement, but don't "pour it on." Strive to have the speaker look forward to his/her next speech. Above all, be encouraging. Your evaluation should help the speaker feel glad about joining Toastmasters and presenting this speech. In addition to your oral evaluation, please write answers to the questions below:

- What strong points does the speaker already have?
 speech flowed good concentration focus (see last bullet for rest)
- How well did the audience get to know the speaker?
 Got to know the speaker to a "good" extent (what he spends a lot of time doing).
- Did the speech reflect adequate preparation?
 yes, well thought out in terms of details about travels + stories
- Did the speaker talk clearly and audibly?
 very clearly & audibly
- Did the speech have a definite opening, body, and conclusion?
 Great Introduction - definite body & conclusion (future trips)
- Please comment on the speaker's use of notes.
 little use of notes - just glanced at them for flow
- What one or two specific suggestions can you give to help the speaker improve? (Focus on showing the speaker how he/she can make the greatest amount of improvement in his/her next speech.)
 - get more comfortable & enjoyed hims more as time went on (smile more - especially at own jokes) - conclusion hurried thru that a bit
- What did the speaker do especially well?
 good gestures, good humor, great eye contact
